Church Notes.

Denver had a distinguished visitor ast week in the person of Rev. Fath-r Gomez, who was sent out by the Apostolic see to work among the In-dians at Durange. Father Gomez was on his way to Washington, whence he will sail for Rome, to make a report of his progress.

Rev. Father O'Farrell of Montros spent a portion of last week in Denver where formerly he was connected with the Cathedral and St. Leo's parishes. Father O'Farrell was awarded the prize, a trip to ireland, in the priests' contest last summer at the Carnival of Nations, and expected to avail himof Nations, and expected to avail this self of the great privilege very short by, but owing to the increase in his parish and the consequent additional labors devolving upon him, has been compelled to defer his visit to his narrive land for another year.

Good Shepherd Picnic.

Nothing has been left undone make the Good Shepherd picnic Saturday, July 13, a most complete success. To judge by the number of tickets sold. Elitch's gardens will hardly have space sufficient to accommodate the generaus men and women of Deriver, who will respond to the #is-ters' call for aid in their very noble work. To be assured that everything will be done for the comfort of the guests one has but to read the list of those who for weeks have been giving their time and attention to the great cause. Mrs. J. M. Hubbard, the president of the Good Shepherd Aid association, has been very fortunate in her corps of assistants, numbering among them such strenuous workers as Mesdames Thomas F. Dolan, M. A. Perry, Dennis W. Mullen, E. P. Mc-Crystal, Nellie J. Hartley, Lucy Gir-ard, J. Van Daniker, F. M. Davls, P. A. Sexton, Henry Abel, Henry Schwartz, M. C. Harrington, D. Harrington, George T.
